Santiago Borja: The Storm Pilot

Santiago is a pilot from Ecuador for an airline company. Over the years, he developed a passion for photography.

At some point, Santiago decided to try to take some photographs of the sky, and especially storms while he was flying (not when he is in a driver seat obviously). He started to share his photographs online and ended up getting noticed & winning photography awards!

He now has more than 100K followers on Instagram and published a book with his best photographs.

Listen to this interesting conversation to understand how he became The Storm Pilot.
